

Rockland Main Street Housing Poll

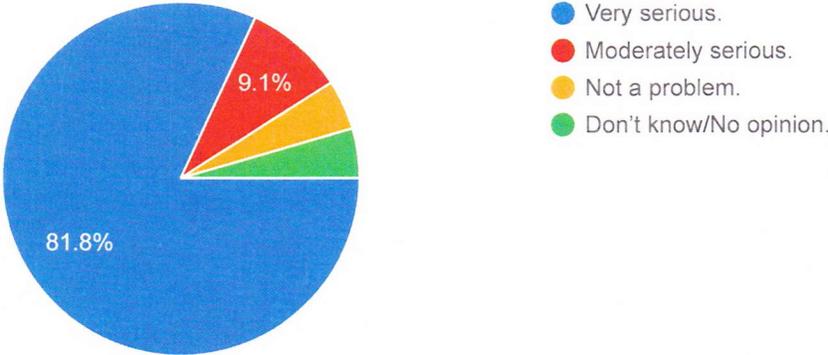

22 responses

Publish analytics

In your opinion, how serious is the need for housing in Rockland for working families earning between $45,000 and $90,000 a year?

22 responses

In the past two years, have you had any difficulty hiring or retaining employees because of the workforce housing shortage?

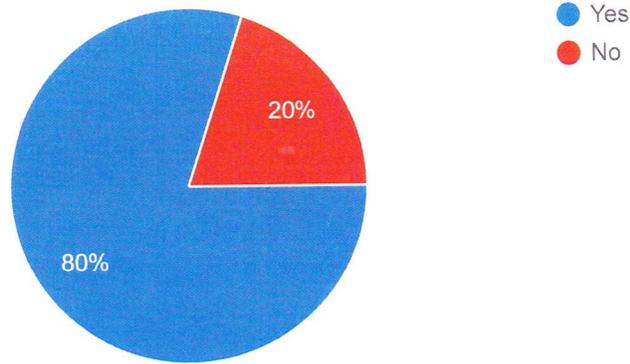

20 responses

In general, would you say that the workforce housing shortage has had a negative impact on your business or organization?

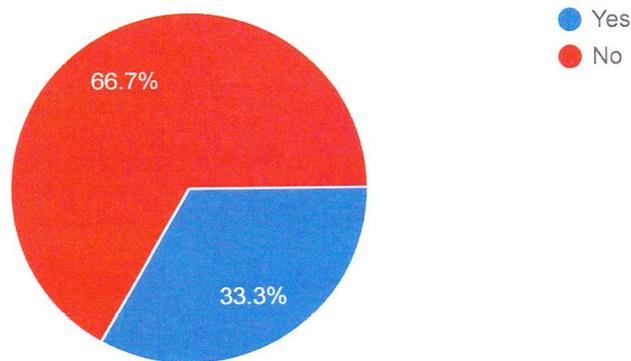

20 responses

Housing trusts are non-profit corporations that develop permanently affordable homes for working families at below-market rates. Have you heard of this concept?

21 responses

In your opinion, would it be useful to form a Midcoast Regional Housing Trust in our area?

22 responses

